

DIRECTOR OF SURGICAL SERVICES (RN)

TITLE: Director of Surgical Services
SETTING: Community Hospital (214-Beds / Level II Trauma)
LOCATION: State of Connecticut (USA)
REPORTS TO: Vice President of Patient Services

JOB SUMMARY:

- Our client a 213-bed community hospital (level-II trauma) located in Northeastern Connecticut seeks a highly skilled and motivated Nurse Leader for the Director of Surgical Services position
- The Director will be responsible for the comprehensive administration of a patient care department or a cluster of departments
- The director shapes and interprets the philosophy and definition of nursing as it relates short and long term planning, program and staff development, resource and budget management, staffing, quality assurance and healthcare system utilization.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Must have State-of-Connecticut RN Licensure (or be eligible)
- Must have Minimum of 7-years of Nursing and O/R experience
- Minimum 3-years in O/R Leadership/Management Role
- CNOR Certified (highly preferred)
- CPR Certified

COMPENSATION:

- “Competitive” base-salary along with comprehensive benefits, tuition assistance, CME, generous vacation package, relocation assistance & potential sign-on-bonus

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

WALT MEDINA, CPC
Healthcare Consultant

♦ Call Toll Free: (888) 276-2930 ♦ Fax: (860) 613-2281 or ♦Email: Wm@WaltMedina.Com